2. [REDACTED] Returned to Ben Mandel, Senate

Internal Security Subcommittee staff, some of the Scandinavian newspapers he had asked us to check regarding the granting of the Nobel Peace Prize to Linus Pauling together with an FDB summary of the substance of these articles. Mandel has asked if we would translate two of these items. We will be in touch with FDB on this.

3. [REDACTED] Met with Representative Charles E.

Bennett to discuss his letter to the Director of 27 January 1964 and gave him some of the background. Mr. Bennett seemed pleased and no response is necessary. See more detailed Memorandum for the DCI of this date.

4. [REDACTED] Met briefly with Senator Leverett Saltonstall who had a few queries concerning the South Vietnam situation. I was able to respond to his questions without getting into great detail.

5. [REDACTED] Talked with Dorothy Feedick, Staff Director of the Jackson Subcommittee, expressing interest in the recent study put out by the Subcommittee. It was indicated that Senator Jackson will be forwarding a copy of the study directly to General Carter.

6. [REDACTED] Left word for Representative Bob Wilson that we had looked thoroughly into the matter which he brought to our attention recently and without naming names left a message that the doctor involved has received full payment and appears to be satisfied at this point and that we were going into the other aspect of this case and would be in further touch.
